

The Internet School Code of Practice

- I understand that my teacher and the internet service provider will check the sites I have visited
- I understand that the information on the internet may not always be reliable and sources may need to be checked
- I understand that my internet access will be removed and my parents/carers informed if I deliberately break the rules
- I will never tell anyone on the internet my home address, my telephone number or my school's name, unless my teacher specifically gives me permission
- I will never send anyone my picture without permission from my teacher/parent/carer
- I will never give my password to anyone, even my best friend
- I will never arrange to meet anyone in person without first agreeing it with my parents/carers/teachers and get them to come along to the first meeting
- I am not allowed to use an internet chat room
- I will never respond to nasty, suggestive or rude emails or bulletin boards. I will always report them to my teacher
- I will only respond to emails from people I know
- I will not use the internet to view inappropriate material (such as racist or pornographic sites)
- I will inform the teacher of any misuse of the internet that comes to my attention
- I will always represent myself and not pretend to be anyone or anything I am not
